Americas Forgotten Pandemic The Influenza Of 1918
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered in jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects wistfully on Tom’s mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. He has escaped school and tells Aunt Polly about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly makes Tom understand that he will not be skipped school that afternoon and week now. Tom’s usual assistant, Dick, was not at home, and Tom must do the work himself. Tom is disgusted and determines to stage a mutiny.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom is surprised, and Tom tries to get Tom to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of mustard. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases Tom off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
